“

Our Deepest Sympathy goes out to Diane and Max's Family. We are church family and we will miss our Brother in Christ, but As much as Max Loved the Lord I truly believe he is in Heaven with the Lord,
And I know we will see him again. God give you and your Comfort and reassurance with Love.

Just wanted to give my sincerest condolences to Mrs. Ducote and to Angie, Maxie, Shane, and Kathy. You May not remember me but I have fond memories of hanging around your house on Westwood Drive when I was a teenager. I also remember a converstion with Mr. Max in which he said; "go and make something of yourself." Thank you for the suggestion sir. God Bless MSgt Christopher Guidry, USAF, Ret.

Christopher Guidry

Barry and Kathy Cortez

Offering our deepest condolences during this difficult time.

Ethel L. Ashby

Born: August 28, 1953

Passed: July 6, 2018

Funeral Home: Mason City Iowa Area Obituaries - Mason City, Iowa

Ethel L. Ashby, 64, of Cedar Falls and formerly of Mason City, died Friday evening (July 6, 2018) at Allen Hospital in Waterloo.

A Graveside Service for Ethel will be held at 11:30 am on Monday (July 16, 2018) at Memorial Park Cemetery, Mason City. A visitation with public viewing will be held from 10:00am until 11:00 am on Monday at Hogan Bremer Moore Colonial Chapel, 126 3rd St. NE, Mason City.

Should friends desire, memorials may be left to Ethel's family in care of Hogan Bremer Moore Colonial Chapel.

The daughter of Rachel Harrington, and oldest of 10 children, Ethel Lee Harrington was born on August 28, 1953 in Greenwood, MS. As an infant her family moved to Chicago where she was raised. As a young adult Ethel moved from Chicago to Fort Dodge before relocating to Mason City to raise her family.

For many years Ethel worked as a Nurse's Aide at Good Shepherd Health Center in Mason City and has been a beautician since 1984. In 2012 Ethel opened Family Affair, a hair s...
